IN A BAD PREDICAMENT,-A few days ago we met a young and gallant lieutenant who has served some years as commander of a company of artillery, which was recruited not far from this city. He informed us that he "was in vice. It appears he came to this city about the list of this month, and on one fine, sunshiny afternoon was introduced to a young lady named Miss B. The lieutenant having been so long separated from the company of the fair sex, and the lady being very agreeable, he soon fell in love with her and proposed a buggy ride, to which she readily assented. Our young friend went for the buggy, but on his way meeting with some friends, industry a little of the sex of this month, and on one fine, sunshiny afternoon was introduced to a young lady named Miss B. AN ITEM OF OUR OWN,-It is very seldom that a "local" can furnish himself with an item at his own expense, but such will happen sometimes, and it did happen with us yesterday. Some vilhain who had neither the fear of the law, or respect for us, went into our private room at Renner's Hotel and stole our linen coat therefrom. No Mercury or Nauseous Drugs!
DR. JOHNSTON,

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons London, Gradunte from one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London. Parts, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, besirulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

Dr. J. addresses all those who have in themselves by improper indulgence and tary habits, which ruin both body and runfitting them for either business, studyciety of marriage.

the evils produced.

Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, peryous and emaclated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of consumption.

lar appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of consumption.

YOUNG MEN

Who have injured themselves by a certain practice induged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the darling of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequences of deviating from the path of nature and indusing in a certain secret habit. Such persons, austrefore contemplating

MARRIAGE.

In a certain secret man, such persons, according before contemplating

MARRIAGE,

Reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote consulial happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes in awary pligrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own.

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has fmbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happapas that an Ill-timed sense of shame, or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symploms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcornted sore it hrout, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafnes, nodes on the shin-bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progression, with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose, hallow and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration, until death puts a period to his dreadful suffering, by sending him to "that undiscovered country from whence no traveler returns."

It is a melancholy fact, that thousands falvetims to this terrible disease, owing to the unskillfulness of ignorant pretenders, who by the use of that deatly poison, Mercary, ruin the constitution, and make the residue of the miserable.

STRANGERS,

Trust not your lives or health to the care of many unlearned and worthless protenders, destitute of knowledge, name or character, who copy Dr. Johnston's advertisements, or style themselues, in the newspapers, regularly Educated Physicians: incapable of curing, they keep you trifling mouth after month, taking their filthy and poisonous compounds or as long as the smallest fee can be obtained, and in despair, leave you with ruined health of the protection of the control of
